

Eyes On The Prize: Fighting Back (1957-1962)
Viewing Guide: Integration of Central High School

Answer these questions as you watch the portion of the video.

1. Why did people think that integration would be accepted in Little Rock, Arkansas?
2. Why did Governor Faubus change his mind about supporting integration?
3. Why did Governor Faubus send National Guard troops to Central High School?
4. Why did Elizabeth Eckford walk to school without the rest of the black students?
5. After the black students were turned away, how did they plan on getting into Central High School? Who did they look towards for help?
6. Eisenhower and Faubus met to come up with a solution to the problem that Arkansas was facing. What did they decide?
7. After Governor Faubus removed the National Guard, who was left to protect the black students?