DOCUMENT ANALYSIS GUIDE: DOCUMENT SET B-1

Thinking about the Arguments in Indian Document Set B-1

1 n	inking about the Arguments in Indian Document Set B-1
1.	Remember that the District Commissioner was often the only British person involved in local government. Can you think of any other possible reasons beyond his inability to speak the native language that might prevent the "sahib" from understanding the local situation?
2.	, e
	you think of any reasons that Sita Ram might not truthfully describe the way he feels about life under British rule?
	WHEN YOU HAVE COMPLETED ANALYSIS OF DOCUMENT SET B-1, COMPLETE YOUR ANALYSIS FOR DOCUMENT SET B-2 AND THE COMPARISON TABLE

DOCUMENT ANALYSIS GUIDE: DOCUMENT SET B-2

Th	inking about the Arguments in British Document Sea	t B-2
1.	Does Hobson agree with those who say that Indians Does he believe the British have "civilized" India?	are not capable of being architects, engineers, or poets? What evidence does he offer for his opinions?
2.	Indian society." In his reference to "British steam a	that England has "broken down the entire framework of nd science" he begins to explain his reasoning. Read the ow, according to Marx, has the destruction of traditional
	Commenters	former than Decrease and Code
т:	Comparing Arguments from the Document Sets st at least three benefits of British presence in India	List at least three criticisms of British presence in that are mentioned in Document Set B-1.		India that are mentioned in Document Set B-2.		