Jacksonian Era Museum Exhibit Layout

Directions: Remember that you have three walls to display your group's views and arguments about Jackson and his legacy. Artifacts may be placed on the wall or anywhere within your floor space. You may not hang anything on the wall with the door. Your reenactor may be positioned anywhere in the room. Consult the model your teacher provided for help.

	Wall 2: View of Whether Andrew Jackson Diminished or Improved Life
Wall 1: Basic Views of Group (including goals for Jacksonian Era society)		Wall 3: Views On Whether Andrew Jackson Should Be Considered a Great President
	Entranceway

Wall 1 Planning Sheet: Basic Views of Group (including goals for Jacksonian Era society)
Directions: Place textual explanations, artifacts, images, quotes, etc. on the wall as the visitor would see them. Write small to make use of your space.

Wall 2 Planning Sheet: View of Whether Andrew Jackson Diminished or Improved Life

Directions: Place textual explanations, artifacts, images, quotes, etc. on the wall as the visitor would see them. Write small to make use of your space.

Wall 3 Planning Sheet: Views On Whether Andrew Jackson Should Be Considered a Great President

Directions: Place textual explanations, artifacts, images, quotes, etc. on the wall as the visitor would see them. Write small to make use of your space.