

ID needed?

Instructions: Read each short scenario and decide whether or not you believe an ID should be required to perform each action (in your opinion). Circle yes or no. Include a short explanation (at least 1 sentence). Be prepared to share your answers with the class.

1. Jack has just turned 16 and is ready to hit the road. Should Jack need an ID to drive? YES or NO
2. Jen is feeling very sick and needs to go to the doctor for medical attention. Should Jen need an ID to visit the doctor? YES or NO
3. Maria can't wait for her girls trip to Italy this summer. Should Maria need an ID to travel overseas? YES or NO
4. Phil decided that he would like to open up a bank account. Should Phil need an ID to do so? YES or NO
5. Shane is super excited to tailgate with his friends at the upcoming football game. Shane decides he would like to buy some alcohol to responsibly drink at the tailgate. Should Shane need an ID to purchase alcohol? YES or NO
6. Eliza would like to apply for government benefits. Should an ID be required to apply? YES or NO

7. Tyler is getting ready to go off to college. He needs to rent an apartment while he's attending school. Should an ID be required for Tyler to rent an apartment? YES or NO

8. Jessica is looking for her first job. She wants to apply to the restaurant near her home. Should an ID be required for her to apply for the job? YES or NO

9. George and his family go on vacation to the beach. On the way to check in to the hotel, he begins to have trouble finding his ID. Should George need an ID to check-in? YES or NO

10. Camille is excited about the upcoming election and is eager to vote for her preferred candidate. Should Camille need an ID to vote in the election?
YES or NO