

Should people convicted of a felony be allowed to vote?

Instructions: In thinking deeply about the question, you will hear from experts describing OPTION 1: Yes, Always; OPTION 2: Yes, After Prison; OPTION 3: Yes, After Parole/Probation; OPTION 4: Yes, With Specific Conditions; and OPTION 5: No. Listen carefully to each of their positions, then discuss the options available to you as you think about how .

	Who controls someone getting the opportunity to vote again	Two Potential Reasons (at least) to Support this option as Fair	One Potential Reason (at least) to Reject this option as Unfair
Yes		- -	-
Yes, After Prison		- -	-
Yes, After Parole or Probation		- -	-
Yes, Specific Conditions		- -	-
No		- -	-

Also, consider...

1. What is the strongest argument to be made for each option?
(either circle this argument or highlight it in yellow)

3. Which decision will bring about the most democratic solution?

2. What is the strongest argument against each option?
(either box this argument or highlight it in green)

4. List any concerns you have about the options above.