Appeal Waiver and Plea Agreement

Introduction:

This document constitutes a formal appeal waiver in the matter of the State of Idaho versus Hector Espinoza, Jr. By executing this waiver, the defendant consents to the terms set forth herein, including a plea agreement which alters the potential sentence in exchange for relinquishing the right to appeal the case at any subsequent date.

Terms of Agreement:

1. Plea Agreement:

- The defendant, Hector Espinoza, Jr., agrees to enter a plea of guilty to the charges as specified by the District Attorney.
- In consideration, the District Attorney consents to recommend a reduced sentence, resulting in a lesser incarceration period than the original charges might warrant.

2. Waiver of Appeal Rights:

- Hector Espinoza, Jr. acknowledges and agrees to waive any rights to appeal the conviction or sentence imposed by the court at any future date.
- This waiver is executed voluntarily, knowingly, and with full comprehension of its implications under the guidance of his attorney.

3. Legal Representation:

- Hector Espinoza, Jr. has been duly represented by his public defender, Steven Williams, throughout the proceedings.
- The defendant has had opportunity to confer with his legal counsel regarding this waiver and plea agreement, and agrees with the legal representation provided.

Acknowledgment:

By affixing their signatures below, the parties affirm their concurrence with the terms of this waiver and plea agreement. The defendant acknowledges that he enters into this agreement voluntarily and with full understanding of its consequences.

Client Note::

This is the waiver my attorney had me sign. It says I understand it, but he didn't fully explain it to me. He only stated I would get less time in prison if I signed it.
