

Introduction: In your first paragraph, you need to start by saying what you think is the best method for securing justice (a fair and equitable trial) after the Holocaust.

In this paragraph you need to write about some positives about your chosen method of securing justice. You could start like this:
This method would be highly effective because...

In this paragraph, you need to write about some negative things about your chosen method of securing justice. You could start like this: This method may also be ineffective because...

Conclusion: In this paragraph you must stake your definitive claim. What method do you think, beyond a shadow of a doubt, is absolutely the most effective at securing justice because of these factors.

Introduction: In your first paragraph, you need to start by saying what you think is the best method for securing justice after the Holocaust.

In this paragraph you need to write about some positives about your chosen method of securing justice. You could start like this:
This method would be highly effective because...

In this paragraph, you need to write about some negative things about your chosen method of securing justice. You could start like this: This method may also be ineffective because...

Conclusion: In this paragraph you must stake your definitive claim. What method do you think, beyond a shadow of a doubt, is absolutely the most effective at securing justice because of these factors.

